7/27/70

Dear Mr. Pemberton,

"Time of Assassins" was a spoof, a brilliant one, but also a very hurtful and inappropriate one.

Keating admitted, when he and I shared a San Francisco platform in 12/63, that the spoof was of me, as I'd believed.

So there is no Leboeuf, which stands for the bull.

I have no word from Garrison, but it is my belief he is finished with the subject, except for any cases already filed as may come to trial. This was indicated to me some time ago by others on his staff and I believe it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg